

Tour Information

The Nikkei Internment Memorial Centre (NIMC) is a National Historic Site dedicated to telling the story of over 22,000 Japanese Canadians who were forcibly relocated during World War II. Located on the site of “The Orchard” internment camp, the NIMC contains original buildings, period artifacts and interpretive displays as well as the Heiwa Teien Peace Garden, designed by the renowned Japanese Canadian gardener, Tomomichi (Roy) Sumi.

Location: 306 Josephine St. New Denver, BC

Open from: May 1 – September 30

Hours of operation: 10:00 am-5:00 pm

Self-guided tours

We welcome school tours, large groups and bus tours from May 1st to Sept 30. Due to limited staff capacity, we do not offer guided tours of the site. The museum attendant on site, may, if time allows, give a short overview of the site prior to the self guided portion of the experience. Self-guided tours take less than an hour.

Tour Reservations

To assist staff in being prepared, please reserve your booking through the Village of New Denver office prior to the visit. Once you have confirmed your details, using the tour request form, an email confirmation will be sent to you.

Rates

The NIMC has a 40% group discount for school groups applied to all individual entrance fees.

Our prices are as follows and include applicable taxes:

Adults - $9.00 Seniors - $7.00 Students - $7.00

We accept debit, cheques or cash but not credit cards. We can also invoice directly, if prearranged.

Site Information

A brochure with a map can be downloaded from our website at www.newdenver.ca/nikkei.

It is recommended that any group larger than 25 splits into two groups and enters the site separately. The Japanese themed Kohan Garden is a block and half away, as is the lakeshore Centennial Park. Both are often used by tour groups as extra attractions.

COVID-19 Information

For our staff, community and visitor safety, we follow COVID-19 recommendations by the Province.
